

Teachers and Education Employees, have you ever asked yourself?

- Do you know what rights are provided by the Texas Education code?
- Come and learn what tips are available for ensuring your rights when they are denied.
- What kind of legal protection from lawsuits do I have under the law? How might I lose that protection?
- What discipline techniques can get me in trouble?
- Learn how TSTA local associations assist their members through local advocacy.

Essential Rights and Basic Advocacy Skills all Education Professionals Should Know

A presentation by the Lewisville Education Association TSTA/NEA

Come hear the chief lawyer for the Texas State Teacher Association tell interesting stories from actual Texas cases involving educators in a way that is fun and informative! Learn how to protect yourself from situations that can get you in legal hot water!

Joey Moore

Legal Services Manager
Organizing Center for Legal Services and Member Advocacy
Texas State Teachers Association

Wednesday, October 17, 2007 - 6:00-7:30 PM
Lewisville ISD Student Services Annex Building
400 West Main
Lewisville, TX 75057

Free!

Everyone welcome! Dinner is provided.
For more information contact: Teresa Chumbley
chumbleyt@lisd.net or call 214-325-9470