Course Offering: All core courses including Spanish I and II will be offered as remediation during summer school to those students who received a failing grade in that subject. Teachers are expected to assess the needs of their students and remediate those essential knowledge and skills in which the students are lacking.

Accelerated courses in Government, Economics, Speech, World History, World Geography, BCIS, Health, Keyboarding and PE will also be offered. Generally, at least 16 must enroll before an accelerated course will be offered.
