

Beatitudes for Special People

Blessed are you who take time to listen to difficult speech, for you help us to know that if we persevere we can be understood.

Blessed are you who walk with us in public places and ignore the stares of strangers, for in your friendship we feel good to be ourselves.

Blessed are you who never bid us to "hurry up" and you who do not snatch our tasks from our hands to do for us, for often we need time rather than help.

Blessed are you who stand beside us as we enter new and untried ventures, for our unsureness will be outweighed by the times when we surprise ourselves and you.

Blessed are you who ask for our help and realize our giftedness, for our greatest need is to be needed.

Blessed are you who help us with the graciousness of Christ, for often we need the help we cannot ask for.

Blessed are you who assure us that what makes us individuals is not our particular disability or difficulty, but our beautiful God given personhood which no handicapping condition can confine.

Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for your understanding and love have opened the doors for us to enjoy life to its fullest, and you helped us believe in ourselves as valued and gifted people.
