

What is this compact?

This compact is a written commitment indicating how all members of a school community—parents, teachers, principals, students, and concerned community members—agree to share responsibility for student learning.

The purpose of this parent-school compact is to communicate a common understanding of home and school responsibilities to assure that every student attains high standards and a quality education.

This is a three-way partnership with a specific goal in mind.

Purpose

The purpose of this agreement is to help parents and teachers come to a consensus on the responsibilities of the individuals influencing students' achievement. The underlying assumption is that a student's academic success will improve when the home and school work together.

The Colony HS School/ Parent Compact

TCHS with the partnership of our parents agree that this compact outlines the shared responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help students prepare for their future.

As a teacher I will be responsible for:

- coming to class prepared to teach a high-quality curriculum and instruction that prepares students for their future and allows students to reach their full potential,
- communicating high expectations for every student,
- providing an environment conducive to academic success,
 - providing daily literacy instruction,
 - providing innovative instruction,
- communicating weekly with families about their child's progress and achievement in school using items such as email, Skyward, Canvas and TCHS websites,
- making decisions based on what is best for each child, and
- providing students with additional support through EOC tutoring programs before and after school and class tutorials.

As a student I will be responsible for:

- believing that I can learn and will learn,
- coming to school regularly and on time ready to learn, and my assignments completed to the best of my ability,
- actively participating in programs to fuel my academic success such as:
 - setting aside time every day to study and complete my homework, either before or after school or at home,
 - reading for at least 20 minutes a day 5 days a week,
 - knowing and following the school and class rules,
- regularly talking to my parents and my teachers about my progress in school, and
- respecting and cooperating with the school, classmates, staff and family without disruption or distraction so all can learn.

As a parent or guardian I will be responsible for:

- talking to my child regularly about the value of education,
- providing a home environment that encourages reading a variety of genres and discourages excessive TV viewing and technology,
- making sure my child attends school regularly, on time, with homework completed,
- Supporting the school's Code of Conduct,
- helping my child meet his/her responsibility by monitoring, my child's progress at school, using Skyward and Canvas,
- making sure my child seeks additional assistance when needed,
- maintaining open communication and work closely with my child's teachers and schedule and attend parent conferences, and
- encouraging my child to participate in extracurricular activities and tutoring sessions.
