

Checklist for College-bound Students

You Have to Self-advocate!!!

- _____ THEA or TSI examination (THEA is pencil and TSI is computerized)
- _____ Complete the college admissions paperwork & provide documentation from last ARD that has disability documented
- _____ Current assessment (within last three years)
- _____ Schedule a college tour
- _____ Meet with the special services advisor on campus
- _____ If provided, schedule an orientation session at the college
- _____ Obtain financial aide information
- _____ Select your major &/or make appointment with career office
- _____ Inquire about student employment opportunities
- _____ See if college of choice has licensed professional counselor services
- _____ Locate all tutoring labs and free study groups
- _____ Learn about any free online tutoring

If you are accepted in an accommodations program at your chosen campus, you might expect the following services:

- Academic advising
- Accommodation paperwork to show each instructor
- Appropriate referrals
- Access to adaptive software products