

Reasonable Accommodations and Services for College/Post Secondary Students

This is not an all-inclusive list, and the specific college determines what is reasonable and appropriate for each individual student based on his/her disability and/or needs.

Early registration

Note taking assistance

Counseling services

Reader services

Scribe services

Audio books or other adaptive technology services

Academic tutoring

Extended testing time

Priority seating in the classroom

Tutoring

Career counseling and testing

Orientation or study skills classes

Copy of overhead transparencies or materials