Mrs. Teddy's Tidbits

Good evening Falcon Families,

Last week was busy and fun week, but we made it through with success! The 5th grade College and Career Day was a huge success! Thanks to all the volunteers and Mrs. Pacheco for scheduling the event. The playdate was so much fun and the weather was perfect! Harvest Run Park is a beautiful park and I hope you get to spend time there with your families. It is a great place for playdates!!

This week:

- Thursday: Read Across Indian Creek/ BOGO Book Fair
- Friday is College Shirt Day! Wear your favorite college shirt or colors!/BOGO Book Fair

To get some input from parents, I have put together a survey about our Restorative Practices implementation. I would for you to talk to your child and take our survey. This is our second year to implement some of the practices, while we have just started some new ones. The survey communicates the practices we are using, as well as allow for input. I would love your feedback!

Have a great week!

Sincerely,

Howdy Falcon Families!

What a beautiful weekend! Hope you enjoyed some family fun outdoors! I loved getting to see some Falcon families and meeting some of our future Falcon families at our playdate!

It's time to start planning for our LAST ICE Reader's Day for the year! It's THIS Thursday!!

There are a lot of slots left, so we need your help!!

Check your calendar for May 2nd! Haven't been an ICE reader yet this year? You (and our students) will have a ball of fun! I encourage you to pick a class or two to share a fun book with!

Remember, if you are unable to make it in, you can always send me a video of yourself reading that I can share with your student's class!
