

March 7-April 29 (4 different virtual fairs)

BigFuture Days: The College Board's First Ever Virtual College Fair

What is BigFuture Days?

BigFuture Days \(Links to an external site.\) is a free regional series of virtual college fairs for high school sophomores and juniors to help connect them with hundreds of colleges, admissions officers, and current college students. BigFuture Days \(Links to an external site.\) are designed to give students a tailored experience so that they can establish connections with colleges and take action on important college planning tasks, like building a college list and identifying scholarships to apply for.

When are these events taking place?

BigFuture Days \(Links to an external site.\) will begin March 7-April 29. Students can attend each four -hour event during the times that work for them. They can attend any event as well as attend more than one event. Parents and guardians are also encouraged to join with their students by registering here \(Links to an external site.\).

When: Click the events below to learn more about the colleges and states included in that region.
