At Arbor Creek Middle School, we believe:

- All students can learn and are capable of high individualized achievement
- All students should learn in a safe, positive and supportive environment where diversity and individuality are respected and appreciated
- All students must be taught and encouraged to collaborate, think critically, apply knowledge, problem solve, communicate effectively and use technology as a tool for learning

The Arbor Creek Middle School community will work together with trust and mutual respect to ensure academic success and responsible student involvement in our school, families and society. We will prepare our students to be innovative global thinkers, because at Arbor Creek, our students will enjoy thriving, productive lives in the future they create.
